

Breast Cancer Nows' The Spectacular Gower Coastal Challenge Friday 13th – Sunday 15th July 2018

1. The Gower Coastal Challenge!

The scenery of the spectacular Gower Peninsula is some of the finest coastal scenery in Britain. Indeed the Gower itself has been designated an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB) and with magnificent coastal scenery it's easy to see why. Our challenge will be to walk the finest 22.5 miles stretch of this headland from Rhossili on the west, along the cliffs, around headlands across hidden bays, through quaint fishing villages and over the sands to Caswell Bay in the East. Then if this is not enough our base for the event will be the well appointed Diplomat hotel and leisure club.

Day 1: Saturday

Rhossili, Worms Head, Port Eynon Bay, Horton and Oxwich

After a hearty breakfast we will hop on a coach to be whisked away to Rhossili and the start of our challenge. Rhossili lies at the southern end of a great swathe of sand of the magnificent Rhossili Bay. But we turn away from the attractive beach and leave behind the village with its tempting pubs and cafes, and instead tootle out to the impressive Worms Head! Along the way we pass inlets and smugglers caves, hidden bays and secluded sandy coves. The path is generally pretty good but there are lots of little ups and downs as our route hugs the tremendous coastline. Eventually we reach Port Eynon and the chance to pick up some refreshments. Now there is a very pleasant stroll across the sandy bay to Horton before a beautiful walk around Oxwich point concludes the day. Hopefully there may even be time for a drink or an ice cream, or just a mellow on the beach before heading back for dinner.

Distance: 12.5 miles (19km) , with 1200 ft (390m) of ascent.

Day 2: Sunday

Oxwich, Three Cliffs Bay to Caswell Bay

After breakfast we take the coach back to yesterday's finishing point where we begin with a renewed energy. The path is a delight, leading us through a thriving nature reserve and through a shady woodland before returning us back to the beach at Three Cliffs Bay. Our route now continues its idyllic meandering route, along the ever changing coast with a series of dramatic towering cliffs, craggy headland and contrasting peaceful sandy bays. Our day concludes at Caswell Bay where the beautiful untouched coastline gives way to the town, but even here there is time to take in the sea air, relax and enjoy the stunning scenery before we hop on the coach to head back to the hotel.

Distance: 10 miles (16km) , with 1,250 ft (400 m) of ascent.

2. Accommodation and What's Included In The Price!

Whilst we will be challenged with the superb coastal walking, we will be equally well looked after in the superbly appointed Best Western Diplomat Hotel in Llanelli. This hotel manages to combine the charm and character of the original building with all the mod cons one would expect today. It also has excellent leisure facilities which will help us unwind and relax after a days walking along the coast. . There is also a great Chef who will stimulate our taste buds with some delightful wholesome, filling and energizing meals. Add to this the very comfortable and tastefully decorated bedrooms, which are fully en-suite, have complimentary tea and coffee making facilities, and we have an ideal base for our Challenge!

Friday Night

We will aim to start the event by meeting everyone in the bar on the Friday night at 7pm. You will have the chance to meet your fellow participants and make some new friends. Dinner will then be served in the restaurant at 8.00pm. We appreciate that a lot of you will have had long journeys up and it may not be possible to make the 7pm meet. ## 5. Preparing yourself for the Event

The Gower Coastal Challenge is a physically demanding event. You will be walking along the coast for two days and each of these days will consist of up to 12.5 miles, and the coast is not flat, there are a number of ups and downs along the way. If you are not used to walking, or taking regular exercise, then you ought to prepare yourself.

Your body needs breaking in and occasional maintenance too! If you prepare yourself gradually you will enjoy the event even more. It is best, less painful and much easier to build up your fitness levels gradually! If you exercise regularly, go swimming, play squash once a week or consider yourself to be averagely fit already, then you have a good starting point, but it is best get used to walking as well. Following these guidelines will help your body prepare for the event:

Getting used to your Boots!

Simply walking around your home and going shopping in your boots will allow your feet to get used to them. This will help to prevent unnecessary blisters and pain, almost always a good thing! Nevertheless, this is not sufficient, it is useful to prepare yourself a little bit more, and the best way to do this is to walk!

Building up your Fitness

The simplest changes in your everyday life can make the biggest difference.

- If you are popping out to the shops, then slip into your boots and walk instead of taking the car.
- If you go to work on the bus or tube, make a resolution to walk to the next stop or get off a stop early.
- Once a week during your lunch hour take a brisk walk around the park.
- To get yourself used to ascent and descent, make a resolution not to use the lift! Using the stairs regularly is a very effective tool in preparing your body for climbing in the hills.

Go on some half day walks

To build up your stamina, it is a good idea to actually go on a walk! On a couple of days off, have a walk in the park or go the local countryside. Buy a local guide book of short walks, perhaps get some friends together and just do it! Walks which end with a pub lunch seem to be extremely popular!

Try to do 2 or 3 half-day walks over the next few months and gradually build up the distance you do.

Try some full day walks

After doing some half-day walks, try a couple of full day walks. Keep increasing the distance until you feel happy with your own ability.

This is the best and most effective way to prepare yourself for the event.

Remember the event is not a flat out race, it is fun challenge event and a good fitness level will help you to get the most out of it!
